

United Way of the Brazos Valley

Spring 2019 Internship Cohort Program

United Way of the Brazos Valley offers a great opportunity for current students to build their skills and gain valuable career experience while serving the community. United Way is committed to strengthening our community through meaningful and measurable improvement in Education, Financial stability and Health.

Benefits of the Internship Cohort Program include:

- Earn academic credit
- Establish professional networks with other cohort members and the community
- Obtain adequate, reliable, and regular supervision and mentoring
- Gain broad exposure to nonprofit organizations and the nonprofit industry
- Attend professional development trainings
- Polish leadership, communication and other skills in specific areas such as event planning, fundraising, etc.

Internship opportunities include:

- Communications/Design Intern
- Community Impact Intern
- Volunteer & Health Outreach Intern
- Resource & Events Intern

Interns provide 15 hours per week during regular business hours. Scheduling can be flexible around the intern's school schedule. Interns may be asked to work independently or in a team to accomplish their learning objectives. Coaching and feedback will be provided on-the-job and performance evaluation will be conducted at the completion of the internship.

All interns must be present for the Orientation on January 21, 2019, professional development event in March and final review in April.

Application Procedure

Applications will be accepted from all current undergraduate and graduate students. International students are also welcome to apply! Please complete the Intern Application on our website and submit your Resume, Application, and Cover Letter by email to Mickal at mlewis@uwbv.org, or drop it off in person at: 1716 Briarcrest Drive, Suite 155 in Bryan, TX.

- Application Opens: October 1, 2018
- Application Deadline: Wednesday, October 31, 2018 at 5:00pm.
- Interviews: Candidates selected for an interview will be contact by November 2 by phone to schedule an interview the week of November 5 – 9.
- Notification: Applicants will be notified by November 19, 2018.

Internship Period: January 21 – May 3, 2019. All interns must be present for the Orientation on January 21, 2019, professional development event in March and final review in April.

To learn more about United Way of the Brazos Valley, visit us at <http://www.uwbv.org>, or follow us on Facebook.

*Dates above are subject to change